SAN MIGUEL CHURCH

Socorro, New Mexico

This fine example of early Spanish-Indian architecture is one of the oldest churches on the North American continent. One of its walls is the remains of the first Franciscan mission built in 1598. Within its five foot walls are hand hewn rafters, sacred ornaments and rare old paintings.

PETLEY Color Card

PUBLISHED BY PETLEY STUDIOS. PHOENIX ARIZONA

K 3 77 Color photography by George Thompson

6005